

Two Scents Worth

Whether you are in the mood for something strong and sophisticated or something more subtle and refined, these two Acca Kappa fragrances will definitely impress

Sometimes it enters the room even before you do. Your scent. It leaves a lingering impression on everyone you meet. It's usually the first thing people notice and it is the last they remember as you make your exit.

Esteemed brand Acca Kappa, world famous for their hair brushes, has diversified in the bath and body segment to include a whole line of products dedicated to the year the company was founded.

The 1869 Eau De Parfum proudly emblazons the company's founding year. With its refined leathery fragrance suggestive of powerful virility, this sophisticated scent is meant for men of style. Cardamom seeds and geranium leaves form its top notes that are distinctly woody and aromatic, exuding freshness and vitality. Sweet violet leaves complemented by the soft scent of iris give its heart notes dynamism and character, while its base notes of warm amber and creamy vanilla hint of subtle sensuality.

The bestselling White Moss or Muschio Bianco Eau De Parfum is a unisex fragrance that's not overpowering. Cool and clear, its delicate scent leaves you longing for more. A burst of lemon, bergamot, juniper, and citrus are the top notes that instantly captivate. Spicy and floral scents of cardamom, lavender, and sweet woods make up its heart notes with lingering qualities; while its base notes of white musk, amber accord, and cedar wood complete your sweet aromatic experience. The refined selection of natural ingredients produce a harmonious blend of sweet and sensual notes that envelope your body with the alluring fragrance and freshness of an Italian spring.

Scent is a vital element of the complete package of impeccable style and grooming. It completes your wardrobe. As they say, you are not fully dressed until you wear your scent. n
